their attendance upon the national irigation congress in El Paso and of their trip to Mexico. A pleasant fea-ture of the tabernacle meeting was that President John R. Winder, on his ighty-third birthday, presided over the services and was given the prayers of the entire congregation.

Apostle Penrose was the chief speak-t. He told of the work of the irrigation congress and the visits to the Mor-mon colonies in Mexico and other parts of the south. He justified his speaking of the irrigation congress on the as sumption that all things in this world ong to God, spiritual as well as material; that man is spiritual and earthly ilso; made of the dust of the earth that there is as much force in things temporal as in things spiritual; that there is a union between the two that God has as much control over the one as over the other; that it is the desire of God that his people join and in material things as in spiritual things. He pointed out that While other denominations are distributing paper tracts, the Mormons are distributing tracts of land and teaching that they are co-operating and looking after the welfare of the people as well as the welfare of their souls.

The speaker told of his visit to President Diaz, and paid him a high tribute as a great scholar, statesman and patriot. He also told of his visit to the museum of antiquities in the City of Mexico and called attention to the, to him, deplorable fact that scientists were paying more attention to mud and protoplasm in their search for knowledge than to the Book of Mormon. This he said was due to the fact that these scientists are skeptics and rejected all revelations. In this respect considers the Mormons far ahead of ions made to Joseph Smith about the ancient people of the south are true.

Apostle John Henry Smith went over

Apostic John Henry Smith went over the same ground as Apostle Penrose, emphasizing different points. He told of the visit of the party to the grave of Apostle Woodruff and of the movement started by a non-Mormon to erect a suitable monument on the spot. He spoke at some length concerning the visit of the party to President Diaz; spoke of him as one of the great men of the earth; told of the good opinion he had of the Mormon colonists in Mexico and of what he was accomplishin

He was placed in a street car and taken to the Holy Cross hospital, where his injuries were attended to. He was found to be severely bruised about the body; his head was cut open and it required three stitches to close the wound. The physician believed that the man had sustained some internal injuries.

Mrs. Tuckett, the wife of the injured man, was summoned, and took him home in a cab after his wounds had been dressed. The physician said yesterday that his patient was doing as well as could be expected. It is not known yet whether the accident will prove fatal.

SAFER IN THE TOMBS.

Complications Would Follow Release of Mrs. Chadwick on Bail.

New York, Dec. 11 .- From present indications it is extremely unlikely that any attempt will be made to obtain bail for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, who has been in the Tombs since last Thursday night on a charge of alding and abetting bank officials in the embezzlement of $12,500. She was held under $15,000 bail. A person who is in a position to know the various moves in the Chadwick case said today, in an interview with a representative of the Associated

No Efforts Were Made.

"Despite all reports to the contrary, no active efforts have been made to obtain bail for Mrs. Chadwick in this city. There are plenty of people here who would sign her bond if asked, but ent by an unknown man who crawled under the building, and, with a large angur, bored a hole through the floor. The money, from a roulette wheel, was in a box under the lookout chair. The man reached his hand through, taking the money. The loss was not discovered for hours. The man had crawled 300 feet. There is no clue to the robber.

Proceedings Without End.

"This procedure could be carried out as long as the government officials thought they had charges. Again, there might come a conflict in authority. A county grand jury might find an indictment against Mrs. Chadwick, and then the matter of extradition would come up in a different light from any yet suggested. "I am of the opinion that Mrs. Chadwick will remain quietly in the Tombs or the present. Her examination is set r next Saturday before United States ommissioner Shields. If further onferences should not be asked for the mmissioner will listen to the evidence with a view of determining whether or not Mrs. Chadwick should be held for the federal grand jury.

Prospective Legal Battle.

"It is not believed that a decision will be reached that day. Indeed, it is very cossible that it will be some time before the matter is definitely decided. In ase Mrs. Chadwick is held for the federal grand jury it is not at all unlikely that one of the greatest legal battles fought in New York will follow." For several days it has been rumored that Dr. Leroy Shippen hadwick was either in Paris, Berlin or Brussels, but an investigation by the Associated Press representatives in those places failed to reveal his presence, although many letters are awalting the physician

Difficult to Prove.

"It has been said that Mrs. Chadwick settled $2,500,000 of the money she borrowed on her husband three years ago. That will be a difficult thing to prove. It must first be shown that she borrowed that money, and then that it was borrowed fraudulently. It would seem reasonable that if the woman could borrow such a large sum of money she must have had some excellent securities. It must be borne in mind that the first Carnegie note, which plays the most important role in this tragedy of finance, is much less than four years old, while it was over three years ago that $2,500,000 were said to have been settled on Dr. Chadwick. It would have been impossible in so short a time to negotiate such a large loan on strength of that note, and it is highly probable that if she did give her hus-band that money she had bona fide security.

"I believe it most unlikely that any attempt will ever be made to bring Dr. Chadwick back on any such hypothesis. Those who know him best believe that whatever wealth he has he acquired

Mrs. Chadwick passed a quiet day in the Tombs. No visitors are allowed to see federal prisoners on Sunday, and no exception was made in Mrs. Chadwick's case, although she received two notes from her nurse, to which she replied. She attended religious service in the corridors.

The prison physician found Mrs. Chadwick in excellent health today, and said that probably he would not need o call on her again.
